

ALIGNING INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND COLLABORATION IN PRACTICE

using promising regional experiences for international exchange

VIDEO BETWEEN A REHABILITATION PROFESSIONAL AND A CLIENT

Coronaria therapy and rehabilitation services

This video material was developed because there was a need for practical examples for ICF training (eg. when learning how to use ICF based tools in practice). This short video material is intended for rehabilitation professionals and students. This can be used, for example, when learning how to use the RPS form.
